Low-Income Telephone or Broadband Internet Access Service Assistance Program

Lifeline

Lifeline is a plan that assists qualified low-income lowans by providing a monthly reduction of $9.25 on their local telephone bill or Broadband Internet Access Service ("BIAS") bill.

You may only receive low-income assistance from one wireline or wireless telephone provider, or one BIAS provider per household.*

*NOTE:

A "Household" is defined as any individual or group of individuals who are living together at the same address as one economic unit. An "economic unit" consists of all adult individuals contributing to and sharing in the income and expenses of a household.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for Lifeline assistance, you must meet income-based criterion currently defined as at or below 135 % of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (see table inside) OR participate in at least one of the following programs:

- Medicaid
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance
- Veterans and Survivors Pension Benefit

In addition, you must not currently be receiving Lifeline assistance and no other person in your household* can be subscribed to the Lifeline program.

To Apply for Lifeline:

- Complete the certification form attached to this brochure, (please include any supporting documents) and submit it to your local telecommunications or BIAS provider's business office. Contact information can be found on your bill or in your local telephone directory.
- Re-certification forms are mailed to all subscribers every year. When you receive a re-certification form, complete and return it to your local telecommunications or BIAS provider within 60 days. Re-certification is mandatory and your telecommunications or BIAS provider will suspend your eligibility for low-income assistance if you do not return the re-certification form.
